

UNVEILING THE ANATOMY OF THE STITCH

4 CLASSES IN LACE WITH LISA DAEHLIN

LION BRAND YARN STUDIO – MARCH 2011

1 - HAIRPIN LACE & BROOMSTICK LACE CROCHET

Friday, March 4th 2011; 12-3pm; $60⁰⁰

Hairpin and Broomstick Lace Crochet are examples of using tools made for common everyday tasks and reinterpreting their use to create lovely fabric. The harmony of these closely-related techniques easily flows one into the other in the ways they are used to make fabric as well as how they function together in design. PREREQ: know how to make a chain and single crochet stitch.

2 - KNITTING A LACE SAMPLER

Sunday, March 6th 2011; 2-5pm; $60⁰⁰

Dissect seemingly complex lace patterns into their simple components. Using the elegant technique of yarn-over increases paired with decreases, learn a sampling of lace patterns which can be used to create a rectangular lace shawl. PREREQ: know how to cast on, knit, purl, bind-off.

3 - KNITTING LACE IN THE ROUND

Friday, March 18th 2011; 12-3pm; $60⁰⁰

Learn the skills needed to knit a lace circle (or square) from the center outward: knitting flat in the round on double-pointed needles, and the various directional increases/decreases used in yarn-over lace knitting. PREREQ: know how to cast on, knit, purl, bind-off. Familiarity with dpns is helpful but not required.

4 - KNITTING A TRIANGULAR LACE SHAWL

Sunday, March 20th 2011; 2-5pm; $60⁰⁰

Create a vision in lace as if an angel's wings draped about your shoulders. Using the elegant technique of yarn-over increases paired with decreases, learn to knit lace in a triangular shape. The class begins with how to make a garter stitch tab as the cast-on at the nape of the neck and covers the skills (including various ways to incorporate beads) needed to work down to the shaping of the bound-off edge. PREREQ: know how to cast on, knit, purl, bind-off.
